GENERAL RESIDENTIAL EXEMPTION: You qualify for this exemption if (1) you owned this property on January 1; (2) you occupied it as your principal residence on January 1; and (3) you or your spouse have not claimed a residence homestead exemption on any other property.

OVER-65 EXEMPTION: You qualify for this exemption if you are 65 years of age or older. This exemption also includes a school tax limitation, or ceiling, and may include a city or county tax ceiling if either offers one. You can't claim a disability exemption if you claim this exemption. You must apply within one year of the date you acquired the home, if you were 65 or older when you acquired and occupied the home as your principal residence, or within one year of the date of your 65th birthday, if you already owned the home and turned 65 after January 1. Attach copy of driver's license, or your state ID card. Please call the appraisal district if you will transfer a tax ceiling from your last home.

DISABILITY EXEMPTION: You qualify for this exemption if you are under a disability for the purposes of payment of disability benefits under the Federal Old Age, Survivor's and Disability Insurance Act OR you meet the definition of disabled in that Act. You can't claim an over-65 exemption if you claim this exemption. This exemption includes a school tax limitation. You must apply within one year of the date you acquired the home if you were disabled when you acquired the home, or within one year of the date you became disabled if you became disabled after you acquired the home. (see instructions)

100% DISABLED VETERANS EXEMPTION: You may qualify for this exemption if you are a disabled veteran who receives from the United States Department of Veterans Affairs or its successor: (1) 100 percent disability compensation due to a service-connected disability; and (2) a rating of 100 percent disabled or individual unemployability. If you qualify for a 100% disabled veteran's exemption after January 1 of a tax year, you may receive the exemption for the applicable portion of that tax year immediately on qualification for the exemption. Attach a current copy of your award letter or other document from the United States Department of Veterans Affairs.

EXTENSION OF EXEMPTION FOR A SURVIVING SPOUSE: If you are a surviving spouse age 55 or older of a person who received or was qualified for the over-65 exemption, or if you are the surviving spouse of a 100% Disabled Veteran you may qualify for an extension of your spouse's exemption, as well as the school tax ceiling. Attach a copy of your driver's license or state ID card and a copy of your spouse's death certificate. If your deceased spouse received the disability exemption and not the over-65 exemption, you may be eligible for continuation of a tax ceiling granted by a city, county, or junior college, but you are not eligible for the disability exemption or school tax ceiling.

Application for Residential Homestead Exemption

More Information:

Tax Exemptions, Limitations, and Qualification Dates

•General Residence Homestead Exemptions: You may only apply for residence homestead exemptions on one property in a tax year. A homestead exemption may include up to 20 acres of land that you actually use in the residential use (occupancy) of your home. Arbitrary factors that are unrelated to that use, such as acreage limits, matching legal descriptions, and contiguous parcels, may not be considered in determining if the land qualifies. To qualify for a homestead exemption, you must own and reside in your home on January 1 of the tax year. If you temporarily move away from your home, you still can qualify for an exemption if you don't establish another principal residence and you intend to return in a period of less than two (2) years. Homeowners in military service outside the U.S. or in a facility providing services related to health, infirmity, or aging may exceed the two-year period.

•Over-65 or Disability Exemptions: You may receive an over-65 or disability homestead exemption immediately upon qualification for the exemption. If you have not provided your birth date on this application, you must apply before the first anniversary of your qualification date to receive the exemption in that tax year. For example, if you turn 65 or are disabled on June 1 of the current year, you have until May 31 of the next year to apply for the current tax year's over-65 or disability exemption. This special provision only applies to an over-65 or disability exemption and not to other exemptions for which you may apply.

Disability Exemptions. You are entitled to the exemption if you meet the Social Security Administration's tests for disability. In simplest terms:

- 1) You must have a medically determinable physical or mental impairment;
- 2) The impairment must prevent you from engaging in any substantial gainful activity; and
- 3) The impairment must be expected to last for at least 12 continuous months or to result in death.

Alternatively, you will qualify if you are 55 or older and blind and cannot engage in your previous work because of your blindness.

To verify your eligibility, attach a copy of your disability determination letter from Social Security (or other recognized retirement system), or have your physician complete and mail us the HCAD form titled Physician's Statement Verifying Eligibility for Disability Homestead Exemption.

•Tax Limitations: The over-65 or disability exemption for school taxes includes a school tax limitation, or ceiling. Other types of taxing units – county, city, or junior college – have the option to grant a tax limitation on homesteads of homeowners who are disabled or 65 years of age or older.

•100% Disabled Veterans: Certain disabled veterans are eligible for 100% exemptions for their residence homesteads. Current documentation from the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) must be submitted to prove that the veteran receives full VA compensation and is either rated at 100% disabled or has a determination of unemployability from the VA. If you qualify for this exemption after Jan. 1 of the tax year you may receive the exemption for the portion of the year for which you qualify.

•Surviving Spouse Extensions: Age 65 or older – You qualify for an extension of this exemption if (1) you are 55 years of age or older on the date your spouse died and (2) your deceased spouse was receiving the over-65 exemption on this residence homestead or would have applied and qualified for the exemption in the year of the spouse's death. Disabled: You will not qualify for a disability exemption claimed by your deceased spouse.

You are not entitled to continue the school tax limitation; however, you will be entitled to continue the local option county, city or junior college limitation. 100% Disabled Veteran. You qualify for an extension of this exemption if, at the time of the veteran's death, you were married and this property was your residence. If you re-marry, the exemption ends.

•Filing Deadlines: File this application between January 1 and April 30. You may file a late homestead exemption application if you file it no later than one year after the date taxes become delinquent. See the previous over-65 or disability exemptions section for more on late filing.

•Re-filing: If the chief appraiser grants the exemptions, you do not need to reapply annually. You must reapply, however, if the chief appraiser requires you to do so by sending you a new application asking you to reapply. You must notify the chief appraiser in writing if and when your right to any exemption ends or your qualifications change. You must reapply if you qualify for additional exemptions based on age or disability in the future. If, however, your application information indicates that your age is 65 or older, or the appraisal district has access to other information that proves you qualify, you need not re-file for the over-65 exemption. To ensure the earliest possible qualification without reapplication, the oldest spouse should complete the application for a married couple.
